PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a motivated student from the University of 17 August 1945 Surabaya majoring in Informatics Engineering and have a passion for design science. I am well equipped with knowledge of UI and UX, but I also understand programming in Python, HTML, and a bit of JS. I am very interested in learning about UI / UX design, and being part of an organization to influence the community. I'm a forever learner and welcome any recommendations on things to do that challenge me to always have a growth mindset.
